

BACK FROM CALGARY

CURLERS RETURN HOME

Our Curlers Capture Numerous Valuable Trophies and Prizes—Were in all the Finals.

Edmonton curlers returned to the city last night from the Calgary bungalow where they succeeded in capturing many valuable trophies and prizes. Saturday's games were:

Giles defeated Spafford of Calgary, in the final of the McNeill trophy by a score of 10 to 8. This was an intensely interesting game and at the 11th end stood 8 all.

Giles defeated Edgar, of Fridley, in the final for the T. Lee cup by a score of 9 to 3.

Giles defeated Smith, of Calgary, in the semi-final for the Brewster cup.

Giles defeated Hunter, of Fridley, in the semi-final in the Victoria's competition. This leaves Giles and Lander, both of Edmonton, in the final. The game will be played off this week in the city.

Lander was defeated by Spafford in the final for the Grand Challenge cup, by a very close score.

The Prize.
Edmonton curlers took the following valuable prizes back with them: Giles, 1st, in T. ## BULLETIN EXTRA

CASHIEL CAPTURED

Ernest Cashiel, the Murderer of Isaac Rufus Belt Captured Near Calgary.

Cashiel found hiding in a deserted Ranch.

Will be Hanged To-morrow.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch).

Calgary, Jan. 25.—Cashiel was captured by the Northwest Mounted Police at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was found hiding in the cellar of a deserted ranch about six miles from the city. He fired four shots at the man who discovered him and was then shot in the foot. The shack was then reduced to its contents and set on fire. Then Cashiel informed those outside that he intended to kill himself and wanted some one to come down and take a note to his mother. The police told him to put the note on the window and ordered him to come out.

After considerable parley, the man came out, again giving himself up. He said that he could have got out of the country a number of times, but that he wanted to save his brother and would not desert him in his time of trouble. John Cashiel will be sentenced today for assisting his brother to escape. Ernest Cashiel will be hanged on Tuesday.

THE NEWS FROM OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—Comptroller White was advised tonight that Inspector Duffus with a party of police, had captured Cashiel.

THE CRIME.

Ernest Cashiel was convicted over three months ago and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Isaac Rufus Belt, a rancher at Tail Creek, east of Red Deer. A few days before the appointed day of his execution, he succeeded in breaking jail at Calgary, where he was confined. The circumstances of his escape were most thrilling, and the Cashiel affair has furnished columns and columns of copy to the entire Canadian and American press. The fact that Cashiel succeeded in escaping from a Canadian jail and from the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police was sufficient to cause great comment. Every mounted policeman in the Northwest Territories felt the sting of Cashiel's escape, and his capture yesterday afternoon by the Mounted Police will blot out that stain.

PARTICULARS OF THE CAPTURE

(Later Bulletin Special Dispatch).
Calgary, Jan. 25.—Ernest Cashiel, the condemned murderer, has been captured. He was taken by the Mounted Police yesterday afternoon while hiding in a cellar in a hay-stack, six miles northeast of Calgary. He had hidden from the police for 45 days, and during that time was never more than six miles from the city and frequently in it. Tuesday last he stopped over night at the house of John Wigmere, a few miles east of Calgary. The police were notified of his movements Sunday. It was decided to take determined action to capture the murderer.

Thirty-two men were sent out to cover the ground where Cashiel was supposed to be. The first party came up to the shack owned by William Pitman, Jr., of this city. Constable Biggs, in examining the house, came upon a kind of den in the stack about seventy-five feet from the house.

In this den he discovered enough to convince him that Cashiel was either in the place or had been there a short time before. In the den there were clothes which Cashiel had stolen from Rigby's and other things which Cashiel had worn. Among other things found there was a piece of paper with signal name of W. G. Woolley Dodd written on it. Mr. Woolley Dodd was the foreman of the Cashiel jury.

The party went into the house. They searched the garret and the house and then Biggs went into the cellar. They saw in one corner a hole where a man might conceal himself. He went upstairs and got a light and came down and held it to him. He saw a man. Hardly had he seen him when flash went a revolver shot on one side of his head and flash went a shot on the other side.

Biggs was not armed and he made a retreat upstairs. He got his revolver and had hardly reached it when Cashiel was right behind him. Biggs fired at once and Cashiel came back with a shot which struck the inside of the door behind which Biggs had taken to cover. Biggs followed with a shot which tore into Cashiel's foot. It was then decided to fire the house.

When everything had been removed the match was applied and when Cashiel smelled the smoke he opened a parley, wanting someone to come down for a letter which he said he had written to his mother. The police were wary and would not go down, and finally Cashiel came out and gave up. He had first threatened to kill himself.

The honors in the arrest are given to Biggs. Others in the party were: Duffus, Chamberlain of Ottawa; Constables Biggs, Peters, Stark and Rogers.

A dispatch from Ottawa says that Cashiel will be resented.

JOHN CASHIEL SENTENCED

(Bulletin Special Dispatch).
Calgary, Jan. 25.—John Cashiel was this morning sentenced to one year in Regina jail by Chief Justice Sifton for assisting his brother Ernest Cashiel to escape from prison. When the sentence was delivered the prisoner bowed and sat down.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

Edmonton camp held their regular meeting Friday night at which many shoppers were present. The two chief features of the evening's entertainment were the instruction given in the Protective Degree by Sov. Graves to ten new candidates, who were greatly impressed with the beautiful work exemplified. Sov. Graves, next conducted the very impressive installation ceremony, after which, speeches were listened to from the many members present, illustrating of their high opinion of woodcraft. The camp unanimously decided to invite Sov. Graves to remain over until next Friday evening, to instruct 20 more new members in the Protective Degree, and also to confer the three degrees of perfected woodcraft, viz., Morning, Noon and Night, to which every visiting sovereign is cordially invited.

Edmonton Camp, No. 755, W. O. W., has been requested by the head clerk to undertake the erection and unveiling of a monument to commemorate the memory of a deceased member of the Woodmen of the World, who is interred in Strathcona cemetery. This work they have undertaken and have appointed Sovereigns R. Kenneth, Rev. McDonald, and V. A. Beringer a committee to take charge of the work. Messrs. Halliday & Halliday have the contract to prepare this monument, which will be unveiled about June 6.

STONE PLAIN.

(Bulletin Correspondence).
 The annual school meeting of the Stone Plain school district, No. 225, was very successful. Almost all the ratepayers were present. Jno. McPherson, chairman of the trustees, presided. He declared the meeting open and called upon Geo. Sutherland, the secretary-treasurer, to read his report. They showed a very favorable financial statement. After all accounts had been paid, a nice sum was left to the credit of the district. The inspectors report showed excellent progress during the year 1903. A hearty and unanimous vote of thanks was on the motion of J. McKinlay, seconded by A. Groat, tendered Mr. Sutherland, Dr. Harrison and J. A. McPherson for their liberal donations towards securing special prizes for the school children at the close of the year. Retiring trustee J. C. Eckles was tendered a hearty vote of thanks for his very efficient efforts for the betterment of education among the children in the district. Mr. Widenham was elected trustee to fill Mr. Eckles' place. He expressed his pleasure at the honor conferred upon him and promised to do his duty faithfully.

At the close of the meeting some one suggested that three cheers be given for Frank Oliver, M. P., Liberal candidate in the Edmonton constituency. Three hearty cheers were given.

G. T. P. OFFICES.

The Grand Trunk Pacific survey staff has moved into their new offices in the Hemlock block. Four large rooms have been engaged. They are well lighted and comfortably heated by steam, and every arrangement made for properly equipping the offices and draughting rooms for the important survey work to be carried on in the country lying east and west of Edmonton during the coming months. With such extensive office arrangements it would appear that the Grand Trunk Pacific management had determined to make Edmonton the permanent headquarters not only for survey work, but for construction also.
